"don't ~~shit~~ behind tents", my mum used to say. And you know what? She was right. It's what made made me the guru I am today. Well, that and devoting my life to JAAA'. Ever since I started snowboarding I've got a lot more attention from NASA - and can you blame them? I'm Outta this world, lol and that's a fact. If I had to choose between baggy and tight, I'd have to go for being naked, otherwise I wouldn't be able to Lunge properly. Get me. I'm always ready for action, except when I'm at the gym doing pilates. People have called me a cracker, but really I'm just a brotheR with an Ided and some love. Nothing gets me down, except maybe the thought of Subo getting down. And if there's one thing I've learned from life, it's that you never go full Of Shrooms to. your Nans house.
